Heartfelt Thanks to BHFS Founder Pat Connolly

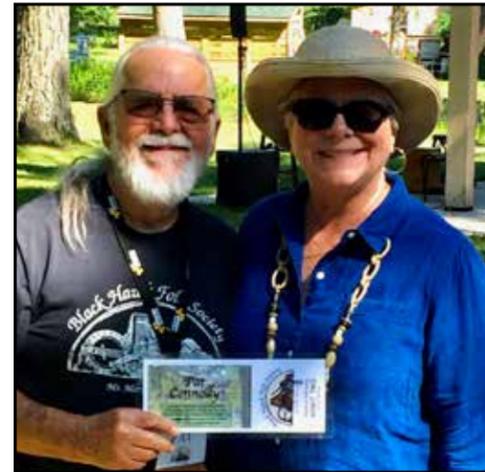

Black Hawk Folk Society founder, and long-time resident of Mt. Morris, Pat Connolly, has “sold the farm” and moved to the west side of the state. We’re sharing a few precious nuggets we gleaned from a quick interview with this charismatic and downright cool guy!

If you had to describe BHFS in three words, what would they be?
FRIENDLY MUSIC GATHERING

What is your favorite memory associated with BHFS?
I love the first notes that come from a performer after all of the prep work has been done (lights, sound, etc.) - it always gives me goose bumps and warm fuzzies. I particularly remember the Larry Penn concert and how he made the audience feel - outstanding!

How has BHFS made a difference in the community?
I think it has provided the opportunity for people in Mt. Morris and in the larger music community to come together.

What is your hope for BHFS's future?
Continuation! I hope these concerts will be discovered by more people. With the support of the Mt. Morris Town Board and the potential for five yearly concerts at the bandshell in beautiful Mt. Morris Town Park, I hope audience numbers will increase and folks will put BHFS monthly concerts on their music calendar.

Pat Connolly and wife Diana graciously accept lifetime tickets to all future BHFS events.

Anything else you would like to share?
We need the community to make the effort to keep the music going. If you support live music in your community, it will give back ten-fold! There has NEVER been a bad performance, and at $10/concert, it's a great deal!

We're going to miss you Pat (and Diana), but the BHFS door is always open - we hope to see you soon!

Second Saturday Concert Series with a Twist

7:00 PM Start Time

The weather is turning chilly and the leaves are changing colors. It's time to don our sweaters and wool socks and head back to the Mountain View Community Center for our Second Saturday Concert Series. We're hosting an indoor concert in both October and November, then we're mixing it up a bit and offering December and January's concerts online. We know that the holidays can get busy and weather doesn't always cooperate for us Wisconsinites, so we're taking a cue from the last couple of years and offering virtual concerts for a couple of months this winter.

We plan to be back to in-person concerts in February, so keep an eye out for your next newsletter this winter or stay up-to-date by checking our website or Facebook page.

Mountain View Community Center

Singer/songwriter Claudia Russell skates around the edges of, and occasionally through, the contemporary folk genre with her attractive blend of blues, jazz, and folk-pop. She will also bring her husband Bruce Kaplan, who is instrumental in their performance - literally (he'll be playing mandolin and guitar) and figuratively. Coming all the way from California to share their talents, we're excited to welcome them Midwestern-style.

Small Potatoes have graced our stage since way back to the "old Town Hall days." The Chicago-based folk duo of Jacquie Manning and Rich Prezioso say it has taken them years of careful indecision to develop a repertoire they describe as "Celtic to cowboy." Superb musicianship and showmanship, award-winning song writing, and a strong sense of tradition has made them, as Dirty Linen Magazine once said, "one of the most polished, inventive, and entertaining shows on the circuit." So join us for a virtual magical musical evening!

From the moment The Crystal River Trio takes the stage, it's obvious that these guys have more in common than just the music, they are close personal friends... a fact that comes across in their performances. The group magically weaves through a diverse program of Irish ballads, sea shanties, calypso, oldies, and folk music, using a combination of history and humor to tie it all together into an evening of fun, laughter, education, and great entertainment.

Bill and Kate Isles use a wide variety of musical styles that carry their audiences through a broad landscape of experiences, from metaphorical worlds to small town family stories and zany comedy. Skilled performers, they are known for their catchy melodies and memorable songs. Their deep-seated love for the audience, and each other, shines through from beginning to end.
